CLASS PROPHECY

After graduating from Green Bank High School as part of the great ole' Class of '70, Micky Collins entered the ~~Armed Forces~~ finally making it his career. The year being 1990, after 20 years of service, Micky has become a well-known 5-star General, stationed in Liechtenstein. He asked for special permission for a 90-day leave to visit his friends and relatives back in the United States.

Flying home on the "Flying Eagles" airline, Micky picks up the "NEW YORK TIMES" and is struck by the headlines, TALLMAN (Republican candidate) FOR PRESIDENT. Reading over the article describing the candidate, Micky suddenly realizes it is his dear ole' buddy, Eddy, of all people!

Turning to the sports page and passing up the comics (for once!) what should he see but a life-size photo of Harold Tyson who has become successful playing professional football for the "Green Bank Packers." On the next page, Micky catches a glimpse of the new coach for the all-girls football team at Goucher, the former coach, Becky Chestnut.

Arriving in New York, Gen. Collins immediately discovers that some of his school friends have become famous on television. Among them are Wanda Smith, who was awarded the "quiet" award, while Rhonda Wenger is a star on "The Lucy Show." She plays opposite her favorite co-worker, "Harry."

Anxious to get home, Micky steps into a phone booth hoping to call home. Instead, he dials a wrong number and gets the operator at Covington, who sweetly answers the phone saying, "Good morning. This is George. How can I help you?" That sounded familiar!! It couldn't be anyone else but the one and only Rosemary, who is now married to George Hipes, also a graduate of Green Bank some years ago.

He tells Rosemary of his intentions and she volunteers to help him look up the '70 grads. She has a date with "Cathy & Dave" who finally got that special dinner to celebrate their 25th anniversary.

He tells Rosemary of his intentions and she volunteers to help him look up the '70 grads. She has with "Cathy & Dave" who finally got that special license to organize their own team and are now living. She also knows the whereabouts of "Henry & Karen." Living in Baltimore, they have found comp

Leaving the big city of New York, Micky travels homeward to Durbin for a few weeks of fun a Picking up the county newspaper, "THE MOUTHY JOURNAL," Micky notices that the editor is his Buster Waybright, who used to be the manager of the Green Bank Golden Eagles. One of the features to do with Linda Taylor. She has moved to the "terry" cloth department in "Grimes" five and dime. Another feature states that Barbara Greathouse is presently employed at "Montgomery" Ward, but he she is an added attraction as the Go-Go Girl at "Charlie's" Pink Door Palace in friendly, downtown P

Micky's idea of fun is spending a Friday night at the Sportsman. Arriving there he sees a familiar thinks. Walking closer, he immediately realizes it is his old buddy, Bob Beverage. In a lengthy con finds out that Bob is still living in Arbovale and is now President of his own Sugar "Crist" cereal con

Suddenly, a song comes on and Micky turns toward the platform just in time to recognize anot Pat Coleman, singing his favorite theme song, "Yesterday, When I Was Young." Pat still has his ability and playboy tactics, and even at this age he still breaks the hearts of all the teenage girls.

Traveling home from the Sportsman late that night, Micky sees a familiar "bug" traveling enco He realizes it is another '70 grad. (Who else but Charlotte Shears in her "white" Volkswagen!)

Micky "gets-away-from-it-all" by relaxing at the local drive-in movie still located in Bartow. Co

Jean Lowe has put her artistic talents to work by publishing a book especially for the '70 grads since they were the last class of graduates. In it, she lists the activities and occupations of the graduates. As Micky reads on, he finds the following information:

Cheryl Colaw is still in school furthering her education on her favorite subject, "Gragg" shorthand.

Dottie Colaw has become manager of the Allegheny nightclub located on Cheat Mountain.

Michael Crist has put his hidden talents to work by making a small fortune as a "weaver."

Clarence Ervine is now a pilot of a "jet" liner with headquarters in "Bowyer."

Fred Gardner has followed Mrs. Hingeley's advice on Shakespeare and is now one of Shakespeare's.

Dave Hawkins was seen on television the other day racing his favorite "Falcon," which he named.

Gary Hedrick is a well-known hair dresser specializing in giving "Toni" permanents.

Mike Hickson, remembered as "Playboy of 1970," is now photographer of "Playboy Magazine," and his model.

Arne Hungerbuhler is our one and only "International Playboy," but he also takes time out to "Cole-Slaw" dressing.

Sue Ann Kelley has now found a new "ray" of sunshine in her life, and his name is "Ronnie."

Mike Hickson, remembered as "Playboy of 1970," is now photographer of "Playboy Magazine," using his model.

Arne Hungerbuhler is our one and only "International Playboy," but he also takes time out to make "Coke-Slow" dressing.

Sue Ann Kelley has now found a new "ray" of sunshine in her life, and his name is "Ronnie."

Manlynn McLaughlin is an expert camper with a knack for skunks. She also adopted "Trade-me-Barb!"

Brent Moore, being the goof-off of '70, is still goofing off, but "shirley" he can succeed.

Bob Oliver was a long-time rival with Brent, but now he has found his own "Shirley."

Debbie Poling is at present an employee at "McElwee" Studios in Marlinton.

Roger Ryder is now the president of the "Blue" Cheese Company.

Glema Rexrode is a professor of Alcoholism at "Davis" and Elkins College, but is still pining for "John" from dear old John.

Larry Sheets has become a "trainer" for the Ringling Brothers Circus.

Linda Snyder is happily married and is presently living at "Hawks" Nest.

Vicky Taylor finally owns a ranch in Wyoming. She has been seen riding her "cole" back horse.

Micky is now reacquainted with all his former classmates and buddies from the last graduation at Bank High School. As Micky closes the book of the 1970 graduates, he recalls all the good times shared along with all the other students, really appreciated all the guidance and understanding they received from the faculty and staff.
